Tracking Courses

See Web Site: <http://trackingcourses.com/courses/>

1-2-1 Tracking

This is ideal for individuals who prefer a more personal 'hands on' approach with an instructor who works closely with them.

1-2-1 Nature Awareness

Ideally suited to individuals who have a more in-depth understanding of Nature Awareness. This course can be arranged to fit around your commitments. Contact me and let's discuss how I can help you.

Corporate Events

If your company's looking for something very different from the usual team building events, then Tracking is the thing to give them!

Our unique Corporate Days allow you and your work colleagues to improve communication skills, decision making, problem solving and a raft of other interpersonal skills... with a twist!

You'll need real team work and understanding, pitting your wits against a real quarry to achieve a goal Sherlock Holmes would be proud of!

*****

If you want something a bit more sedate, then let Geoffrey use his Nature Awareness skills to help your team explore their relationship with themselves and their peers in Nature. One thing's for sure, they'll form a different bond than normally experienced on team building events. It'll open their eyes to something quite wonderful and amazing... and one they'll never forget!

Choose from packages of One Day events or overnight stays.

I can provide food, but there's nothing stopping your team preparing and cooking their own over an open fire. This can include wild food they've foraged themselves during their time in the woods!

And that's not all: For those who're a bit competitive, we offer a Field Archery package. Just call and we'll discuss the details.

One Day 'Dirt Time' with Supervision

These are One Day events where you spend the day getting in lots of dirt time under the supervision of tracking instructors.

The instructors are there to advise and help you improve your skills.

NOTE: This is only open to people who've attended a tracking course with me or another school. Contact me and we'll discuss the details.

Tracking & Nature Awareness Instructor Training

If you're looking to become a tracking instructor, then why not give me a call and we'll discuss what you want to achieve and design a programme for you. The programme would be over a series of weekends and one day sessions where appropriate.

Guest Instructor To Bushcraft Schools

If you're looking to run a Tracking course for your students, but don't feel you have the necessary skills, then contact Geoffrey who has a proven track record of providing programmes to suit you.

Geoffrey has taught at some well known Bushcraft Schools around the country, so he'll design a course specifically to meet your objectives.

One thing you can be sure of, your students will be talking about your tracking course for a long time to come! In fact, students who've been through one of Geoffrey's courses always say they got more than they thought they were going to get. And that'll reflect well on your business, right?

There's also the opportunity to earn commission from referrals! Just contact me for details.

Police, Military or other Organisations: I've taught many service personnel including police officers, Scouts and other professionals. Many have gone on to use their new skills in their profession to great effect.
